DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition on August 21, 2002. The petitioner filed a motion to reopen on September 18, 2002. The director granted the motion and affirmed its initial decision denying the petition. The petitioner attempted to file an appeal but failed to include a filing fee. The director gave the petitioner notice that the appeal had been rejected because he had failed to include the proper filing fee. The petitioner resubmitted the appeal form with the proper fee on September 27, 2003. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of after service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on August 6, 2003. It is noted that the director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. The appeal was received by CIS on September 27, 2003, or 52 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the service center director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The director declined to treat the late appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
